Nadine is a practicing Family Nurse Practitioner in the State of Michigan, board certified through the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC). She holds certifications in Basic Life Support and Advanced Cardiac Life Support. Nadine completed her education at the University of Michigan, where she received her bachelor's degree in biological sciences and political science. Shortly after graduating, she began and earned her bachelors of nursing degree from Madonna University. Later, she chose to pursue an advanced degree, and earned her Masters Degree as a Family Nurse Practitioner from Chamberlain University. Nadine has experience in cardiovascular care, and worked as a cardiovascular RN for the Ascension health system. Nadine brings care, compassion, and energy into her work. She is thoughtful, and pays close attention to detail. Today, Nadine is a practicing Nurse Practitioner at Dearborn Cardiology working in collaboration with Dr. Osama Qaqi and Dr. Sonela Blaceri to care for patients at our Dearborn location. Nadine also practices in the Beaumont hospital system as well as the Ascension hospital system. Nadine is currently accepting new patients at our Dearborn location and accepts most insurances.
